Join the Los Angeles Department of City Planning and the Los Angeles Conservancy for a day of interactive workshops and networking with historic preservation experts and community stakeholders to learn more about how to protect the unique character of Los Angeles' historic neighborhoods. The theme of this year's conference is SUSTAINABLE PRACTICES and the event is open to anyone interested in historic districts and neighborhood conservation. The day will culminate with walking tours of Windsor Village, Country Club Park, and Wilshire Park Historic Preservation Overlay Zones (HPOZs). The conference will take place at Wilshire United Methodist Church, a designated City Historic-Cultural Monument.

Keynote Speakers

Lisa See, Celebrated novelist/author on LA's cultural history.

Noré Winter, Winter and Company, Boulder, Colorado. Nationally recognized expert on historic preservation and neighborhood conservation.

Conference Sessions Include

- 🌿 re:code LA: A Toolkit for Older and Historic Neighborhoods
- 🌿 HPOZ 101: The Fundamentals of Los Angeles' Historic Districts
- 🌿 Sustainability = Existing Buildings
From Energy Efficiency to Reuse
- 🌿 Juxtaposing Old and New in Los Angeles' Historic Neighborhoods
- 🌿 Flipping Homes in Older Neighborhoods: The Good and the Bad
- 🌿 Greening Your Older Home

Neighborhood Photo Wall

Show us what makes your neighborhood unique! Tag photos on Instagram and Twitter using #LAStoryhood and bring your favorite printed photos to the conference for an interactive workshop. Best photo wins an award!

Lunch and Awards Ceremony

Conference registration includes a catered lunch. During lunch, the HPOZ Awards Ceremony will take place honoring exemplary projects and community leaders.

Walking Tours

Following lunch, you may choose to tour one of three nearby Historic Neighborhoods: Windsor Village, Country Club Park or Wilshire Park. Tours will be led by HPOZ board members and residents.
